

Green River hike along Pulliam Creek

7 miles in-and-out, Difficulty (1=effortless, 10=hard): 5. Good footing, few rock hops (use your poles), with gradual downhills to the river, then gradual uphill back to the trailhead.

Drive to: Green River Cove Trailhead, 3770-3934, Green River Cove Rd, Saluda, NC 28773 Approximately 1 hr drive.

Follow the Pulliam Creek Trail, then turn right on the Green River Cove Trail for a half-mile with a side-trip to the river then returning to the same intersection, but turning right on the Green River Cove Trail for roughly 1/2 mile to a second spot on the river for lunch. Return on the Green River Cove Trail, but stay right onto the Pulliam Creek trail back to our car.

Check this out, make directions and add pictures.

If it is super easy, the Green River and Pulliam Creek Loop is a 9 mile loop trail that features beautiful wild flowers and is also rated as moderate. We may want to incorporate.
